Respondent.

This compromise Conciliation Agreement is entered into by and between the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission (hereinafter "Commission"), on behalf of [REDACTED] (hereinafter "Complainant"), versus Homes and Then Some, Inc and [REDACTED] (hereinafter "Respondents").

WHEREAS, a verified complaint was filed on March 19, 2019, by Complainant against Respondent alleging a violation of the South Carolina Fair Housing Law and dual-filed with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under the Federal Fair Housing Act, as amended.

I. CASE SYNOPSIS

The Complainant alleges that the Respondent subjected her to discriminatory terms and conditions and denied housing. Complainant stated that the Respondent had initially allowed her and her spouse to see the inside of two of the properties. The Complainant said that on or about December 19, 2018 the Respondent had canceled her appointment because she did not have a social security number. Complainant informed the Respondent that she had an ITIN number but the Respondent did not accept the ITIN number.

Respondent denies having discriminated against Complainant but agrees to settle the claims in the underlying action by entering into this Conciliation Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Commission and the parties hereto wish to reach a just resolution of the aforementioned dispute, and reach a full, equitable and final settlement of all matters arising out of the aforementioned complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereby agree and stipulate to the following:

II. GENERAL PROVISIONS

The terms set forth herein are contractual and not merely a recital.

- A. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement is a full settlement of the disputed complaint. The parties hereto state that they have read and fully understand the significance of the terms set forth herein and have executed this compromise Conciliation Agreement freely and voluntarily. No party has been coerced, intimidated, threatened, or in any way forced to become a party to this Agreement.
- B. By signing this Agreement both Complainant and Respondent state that they have had the opportunity to seek legal counsel regarding the effects of this Agreement.
- C. This conciliation agreement fully and completely resolves all issues arising out of SHAC Case # H-1 19-011/HUD Case # 04-19-5871-8 through the effective date of this agreement. The Commission and the Charging Party will take no further legal action with respect to, and will not initiate any action pertaining to, the facts and events which led to the filing of the charge so long as the parties abide by the terms of this Conciliation Agreement.
- D. This Agreement, after it has been approved by the Commissioner of South Carolina Human Affairs Commission (SCHAC), is binding upon all Respondents, their employees, successors and all others in active concert with them in the ownership or operation of Robert Dayton.
- E. It is understood that, pursuant to Section 31-21-120 (D) of the South Carolina Code of Laws Fair Housing Law, upon approval of this Agreement by the Commissioner of SCHAC, it is a public document.
- F. This Agreement does not in any way limit or restrict SCHAC's authority to investigate any other complaint involving Respondents made pursuant to the Fair Housing Law, or any other law within SCHAC's jurisdiction.
- G. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes closure of the complaint at HUD and South Carolina Human Affairs Commission upon a determination that Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) have complied with the terms of the Agreement.

III. PROVISIONS FOR THE PUBLIC INTEREST

In order to assure that the public interest is protected, Respondent, without admitting to any violation of the South Carolina Fair Housing Law or Federal Fair Housing Act, agrees to continue to take such affirmative action as may be necessary to assure the elimination of discriminatory housing practices and the prevention of their occurrence in the future, including, but not limited to the following:

- A. Respondent agrees to comply with all federal and state housing laws.

- B. Respondent agrees to consistently apply its standards for acceptance and rejection of housing applicants in an objective manner.
- C. Respondent agrees to allow any qualified person the right to purchase, rent, or occupy a dwelling regardless of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin.
- D. Respondent employees, who interact with applicants, and tenants, shall complete Fair Housing training, provided by the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission or a qualified agency of Respondent's choosing, within six months from the date of the signed agreement. Respondent shall provide certificates/proof of training to the Commission within six months from the date of the signed agreement.
- E. Respondent agrees to post an 11-by-14-inch fair housing poster that the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission will provide (if it's not already posted). The poster should be placed in a well-lit location in which it is easily readable, and in any rental office.

IV. RELIEF FOR COMPLAINANT

- A. Respondent agrees to compensate Complainant the amount of Five Hundred dollars ($500.00) within 15 days of the date of this executed agreement.
- B. Respondent agrees that there shall be no discrimination or retaliation of any kind against Complainant or any person who assisted the Commission in the filing of this charge or in the investigation of this matter.

V. RELEASE BY COMPLAINANT

- A. Upon compliance with the terms of Paragraph IV through herein, Complainant agrees to release and forever discharge Respondent and Respondent's employees, agents, successors, insurers, and assigns from any and all claims which may be raised on account of the matters raised herein.

VI. BREACH OF CONCILIATED TERMS

- A. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to preclude the Commission and/or any aggrieved individual(s) from bringing suit to enforce this Agreement in the event that Respondent fails to perform the promises and representations contained herein. Neither does it preclude the Commission from filing charges in the future concerning events occurring after the execution of this conciliation agreement. The Commission shall determine whether Respondent has complied with the terms of this agreement. In the event that the Commission determines that Respondent has not complied with the terms hereof, the Commission shall send written notice to Respondent and Respondent shall be given a reasonable time period to remedy such non-compliance.
- B. Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) agree that this Agreement may be used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding in which any of the parties allege a breach of this Agreement.
